Notes/Narratives

On November 1st, 2015 I responded to [REDACTED] reference stalking. Upon arrival I made contact with Jennifer Terpstra who advised she has been viewing new updates on a website a male named, Todd [REDACTED] Green set up in honor of her and a friend, Tiffany Bredfelt that says negative things and some of which could be portrayed as threats.

Jennifer stated in 2005 she and her friend met Todd [REDACTED] Greene at a horse boarding facility that his mother owns. He then became fixated on the two of them and began stalking them. Tiffany went to court and had a trial in 2012, during which Jennifer testified against Todd. After the court procedure, she advised she was granted a lifetime Order of Protection.

Jennifer stated ever since then Todd has created a website which is dedicated to her, Tiffany, and their friends/family. The website is called restrainingorderabuse.com. Upon observing the website, it appeared to be a blog, talking about how Jennifer and her friends were bad people and demeaning them. There were pictures on there of her and her ex-husband. There was a headline that stated, "A cautionary observation for narcissists and other sociopath who believe their own press: The effectiveness of lies has an expiration date (and so do you). She felt that title was a threat to her life, due to the past experiences.

She works for UA and has notified UAPD of the circumstances. She's been in contact with Sgt. Filbert Barrera (850-3647). She didn't have the UAPD case number on hand, and she didn't have the original Order of Protection with her. [REDACTED]

Jennifer advised she wanted this documented incase he acts on his words and would be contacted UAPD Sgt. Berrera asap. I took field photos of the different paper work and some photos of blogs on the website.

Jennifer advised she wished to prosecute.
I provided her with a VINE form.
